

CONTACT: Meredith Carr
(615) 400-5052
meredith.carr@earthlink.net

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ralph Mosley Joins T.W. Frierson Advisory Board

(Nashville, TN) — Ralph Mosley has joined the T. W. Frierson Contractor, Inc. Advisory Board as its first external board member.

Mosley is the former chairman and CEO of Southwestern/Great American, Inc. He serves on the Board of Directors and Executive Committee at SunTrust Bank. In addition to his other roles, he is a Trustee for the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee.

Mosley's service has previously earned him the Bellsouth-sponsored Marvin Runyon Award for Leadership, the Summit Award from Sales & Marketing Executives of Nashville, the Pinnacle Award from the Sales & Marketing Executives International, and the Silver Hope Chest Award from the Middle Tennessee Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The Nashville Society of Fundraising Executives declared Mosley the 1991 Philanthropist of the Year. St. Thomas Hospital inducted him into its Seton Society for demonstrating excellence in his profession and in his service to the hospital and the greater community. He was also inducted into the Academy of Achievement. Mosley has volunteered at the Martha O'Bryan Center for over 20 years in numerous leadership, fundraising, and community service roles.

Founded in 1958, T.W. Frierson Contractor, Inc. is a leader in the development and construction of office buildings, industrial complexes, distribution centers, hotels, banks, and public facilities. Previously named Middle Tennessee's Largest General Contractor and National Volume Builder of the Year by Butler Manufacturing the company performs concrete, steel erection, sheet metal, and carpentry work with its own personnel.

Frierson celebrates its 50th Anniversary this year.